

Grammar

Comparing
Continuous forms
Noun phrases
Perfect forms
Auxiliary verbs
Articles
Degrees of obligation
Passives
Relative clauses
Quantifiers
Uses of would
Verb patterns
Hypotheses
Unreality
Probability and speculation
Participle clauses
Uses of will
The future
Position of adverbials
Adjective position
Whoever, whatever, wherever, no matter
Causatives have and get
Reporting verbs

Vocabulary

Time and speed

Change

Phrases with adverbs

Collocation of describing problems and solutions

Collocation of perception and sound

Behaviour and attitude

Success and failure

Prepositional phrases

Responsibility

Phrases with care

Connotation

Common phrases with relative pronouns

Phrases with of to describe quantity

Compound adjectives and nouns

Preferences

Leisure, relaxation and stress

Words with more than one meaning

Emotions

Reacting to events

Metaphor

Properties of materials

Phrasal verbs

Formal and informal language

Idiomatic phrases with will

Higher education

Money

New and old

Understanding idioms

Adjectives and adverbs beginning with a-

Food preparation

Fixed and semi-fixed expressions

Special meanings of off, down and over

Describing research and results

Function

Vague language
Approximation
An informal talk
Checking and rephrasing
Formal negotiations
Managing conversations
Informal negotiations
Speculating, comparing and contrasting
Giving a presentation
Reaching a consensus
Emphasis
Talking about a magazine story

Pronunciation

Sentences stress
Consonant clusters
Auxiliary verbs
Checking and rephrasing
Pacing and spacing in natural speech
Would in connected speech
Intonation in negotiating phrases
Use of stress on will and would Sentences with only
Stress in word families

Listening

Taking notes
Understanding word boundaries
Understanding reference
Knowing what to concentrate on Paraphrasing
Understanding non-standard word order

Reading

Predicting content
How writers avoid repetition
Understanding complex sentences
Understanding links within a text
Understanding writer stance
Noun reference

Writing

Understanding a report based on a graph
Building a summary
Constructing a proposal
Forming a balanced argument essay
Employing emphasis: inversion and cleft sentences
Constructing an online review
Using comment adverbs
Understanding a problem-solution-evaluation report
Using discourse markers
Understanding an email enquiry
Constructing a blog entry